Body Duties and Responsibilities

Lodge or Perfection - Business meetings and Education Programs
Chapter Rose Croix - Easter/Maundy Thursday or Ceremony of Remembrance and Renewal
Council of Kadosh - Special Activities i.e., Ladies Night, prospect night, Picnic. etc.
Consistory - Responsible for all reunion activities

The Sign of the Good Shepherd is made by crossing the arms and placing the hands where the arms meet the shoulders, crossing the right arm first and then crossing the left arm over the right. The crossed arms should not be rigid, but held in a relaxed manner, keeping the fingers together. The head should be slightly bowed.

Education:

The Scottish Rite is one of the appendant bodies of Freemasonry that a Master Mason may join for further exposure to the principles of Freemasonry. In England and some other countries, while the Scottish Rite is not accorded official recognition by the Grand Lodge, there is no prohibition against a Freemason electing to join it. In the United States, however, the Scottish Rite is officially recognized by Grand Lodges as an extension of the degrees of Freemasonry. The Scottish Rite builds upon the ethical teachings and philosophy offered in the craft lodge, or Blue Lodge, through dramatic presentation of the individual degrees.

In the United States of America there are two Supreme Councils: one in Washington, DC, and one in Lexington, Massachusetts, which control the Southern Jurisdiction (SJ) and Northern Masonic Jurisdiction (NMJ), respectively. In the SJ, individual states are referred to as Orients and local bodies are called Valleys; the NMJ uses only Valley. Each Valley has up to four Scottish Rite bodies, and each body confers a set of degrees. In the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States, the Supreme Council consists of no more than 33 members, and is presided over by a Grand Commander. Other members of the Supreme Council are called "Sovereign Grand Inspectors General" (S.G.I.G.), and each is the head of the Rite in his respective Orient (or state). Other heads of the various Orients who are not members of the Supreme Council are called "Deputies of the Supreme Council."
