Fraternal Greetings to You Brethren

 From the East. Thanks to all the Brethren for their contributions at the last stated meetings and the Relay for Life participation. We collected and contributed over $1300 for the Relay for Life, which shows what we as a Lodge can do when we work together. I am continuing the training program that I stated in my first stated meeting. I want the Brothers to get involved and learn more about Masonry, and this is a way you learn by doing. Thanks to all who have volunteered to take positions in chairs or other parts of the ceremony. We as a Fraternity can make a difference in the Lodge and the community. W.M. Jim

Tidings from the West

Greeting from the South:

 From the Secretary's Desk: Cancer Relay was successful. We raised $1375 and covered a lot of miles. Thanks for all who came out and supported the event. We were also voted best decorated site by the survivors. Thanks for all that extra effort.

From the Webmaster Brethren. I have great intentions to keep the lodge web site current but my schedule doesn't always permit rapid updates. If you see something that needs attention, send me a note and I'll put that item at the top of my work list. Thanks to those who sent pictures of recent events. I will get them posted soon. Fraternally, Rick Reichert, PM 2003, Webmaster

Grand Junior Steward:

From the Building Managers We got some of the work done, but have a lot more to do. Since it has proven hard to get a good size crew together on Saturdays I will post a list of projects in the kitchen and am looking for volunteers to get them done. Thanks to those who turned out.

Sickness and Distress WB Fred Hope's wife and son are both not doing well. Keep them in your prayers and give Fred a call or a note if you can.

MESSAGES FROM TRAVELING BROTHERS. CHECK THE ONLINE TRESTLE BOARD FOR MORE DETAILS.

Bro Ben Szemere got married on the 2nd of June. It was a nice small family wedding. Ben and his dad both said hi to all the brothers.
